The Crusader Caption Contest

Sure, it looks like LaCroix is strangling his wayward son—but we're sure there's another explanation behind this Forever Knight publicity photo. Maybe this is just the vampire form of the Hokey Pokey, or our favorite vampire duo are celebrating a Packers win!

What do you think? Enter your best idea in the form below! The winner will receive a t-shirt with the picture and the winning caption on it!

And the winner is…Danii! Her winning caption is:

"Fine…LaCroix…

If you…let me…

go…I'll…stop singing…show tunes!"

Here are the caption entries, in no particular order. After the submission period is over, you'll have the chance to vote for your favorite caption.

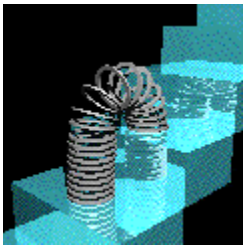
The Slinky Challenge

We have a winner! Congratulations to Michelle Rosenberg, author of the winning story, "Missing in Action".

How it all Started...

Nancy Kaminski recently received an email with this amusing sig line: "Some people are like Slinkies...not really good for anything, but you still can't help but smile when you see one tumble down the stairs."



"Hmmm," she mused in an IM chat with Susan Ellen Field, "I wonder what would happen if someone gave Nick a Slinky?"

And from that silly thought, a challenge was born: write a story in which one FK character is put together with one Slinky. One character, one Slinky, and let the fun (or drama) begin!

  Forever, and a Knight. 151 pages. Rated PG. $17 plus postage. Short stories: "1966 Encore" by Sue Burke; six short stories by Candy Vogel; 1 novella, "A Vampire's Promise" by Candy Vogel and Cheryl Schneider; 14 vampire poems by MC Schisler; plus poetry by Sue Burke, Anita Stone, Pristine Aericko.

  Putting the Pieces Together by Candy Vogel and Cheryl Schneider. 115 pages. Rated a strong PG-13. $14. Be careful what you wish for, and how you wish for it! Natalie wanted to be with Nick, no matter what—in life, in death, or even in darkness. Now she and Nick are together, as vampires. Can she cope with life on the dark side? Third season but it's mostly a Nick and Nat—and LaCroix!—story, with flashbacks to the 1800s, which include Janette.

The Fire by Donna Stripling. 106 pages, rated a strong-PG-13 for sexual content. $14. Someone is killing the vampires of Toronto, and too many innocent mortals are dying in the process. An exciting Third Season story with touches of humor and lots of romance.

The Heart Has Its Reasons by Jamie Melody Randell. 68 pages, PG-13, with tasteful vampire love scenes. $12. A sequel (of sorts) to "Be My Valentine," written before "A More Permanent Hell." Natalie is stripped of her memories of Nick's true nature by a mysterious stranger. There is only one vampire with the power to rearrange human minds so effectively, a far more dangerous adversary than LaCroix could ever be—the very being who made LaCroix what he is. Has she come to help Nick, or destroy him?

Forever Knight/Geraint Wyn Davies Scrapbook. 165 pages. $18. Photocopied articles, interviews, reviews, pics (FK, Ger, Cast; Black Harbour, more). This is not the "Bluebook" from GWDFC—it's from my own personal scrapbook!

A Vampire in the Theatre, by Nanci Folsom Casad. PG-13. 205 pages. Spiral bound. $15. Novel-length, unique "original vampire" fanzine (not FK). A contemporary story with a flashback to the 1800's. A young woman finds a mysterious, sensitive stranger locked in a storage room in an old theatre. After several strange occurrences lead her to believe the man is a vampire, she sets out to discover the truth, only to complicate matters by falling in love with him along the way. If you like Forever Knight, you'll love A Vampire In the Theatre!
